Jandy is a seasoned trust professional with a diversity of experience managing fiduciary and agency appointments involving a broad range of structures including trusts, estates, guardianships, powers of attorney and corporations. She is well versed in creating comprehensive technical and tax efficient estate planning solutions that are simultaneously responsive to the personal and emotional objectives that often influence estate, trust and incapacity planning.

In her two decades plus of involvement in estate planning and administration, she has garnered a unique ability to seamlessly support the needs of beneficiaries while adhering to the objectives of a fiduciary structure. Her experience at a number of major financial institutions and leading trust companies has enabled her to draw upon a range of best practices and provide pragmatic and customized fiduciary solutions for her clients.

Jandy is a strong advocate of helping women advance in the trust industry. She is well known for organizing networking opportunities and events in this regard and she has acted as a supportive mentor to many aspiring trust associates. In addition to being a TEP member, she is also a graduate of York University with an Honours B.A. in Mathematics for Commerce.
